Self Catering at the Trefeddian

The Trefeddian has three properties offering you the flexibility of self catering combined with the use of the hotel facilities providing you with the perfect base to explore Southern Snowdonia.

Seacape I and II, situated in the hotel grounds, offer five star luxury accommodation with panoramic sea views. Designed with open plan upstairs living spaces which lead to peaceful balconies with uninterrupted views across Cardigan Bay. A great place to unwind and reflect on your day.

Alternatively, our traditional Edwardian house is just minutes from the hotel and beach with stunning views over the championship golf course to the sea.

Sleeping between four and seven people our self-catering options are a great choice for getting together with family or friends.

Perfectly Positioned...

Ideally located on the Mid Wales coast, the Trefeddian Hotel is a great base for exploring the surrounding area. Rich in Welsh culture, history and natural beauty, there is plenty to see and do with spectacular coastline, undulating valleys and magnificent mountains.

Stretching out in front of the hotel is over four miles of golden sandy beach, offering plenty of space for all to enjoy. Whether it be swimming or surfing, flying kites or simply making the most of the weather it is easy to see why Aberdovey beach is award winning and loved by so many.

Children, visiting for the first time, will love the simple pleasures of Aberdovey which will keep them occupied for hours. Crabbing from the jetty, building sandcastles on the beach and delicious homemade ice cream to end their day.
